Wine List of the Year Thailand – Phuket eatery raises the bar

CONGRATULATIONS to Aziamendi at Iniala, Phuket!

Aziamendi's wine list is according to the international judging panel, "impressive, well researched and well balanced list". The list, under the expert assemblage of resident sommelier, Fabien Ettiene boasts a wide range of wines from around the world with logical presentation and "pleasingly esoteric selections at times..."

Chairman of Judges, Peter Scudamore-Smith MW says "lists such as Aziamendi and similar are the shining lights which make customer wine selection in Thailand a simpler task. Diners are time poor yet experimental, more inclined to order younger wines than old (where storage may be questionable) and wishing for their sommelier to be internationally-focused, varietal thinking, and not bogged down by region. Aziamendi in a tourist hub covered all the bases with wines from our globe".
